My Dear Mrs & Ronny

Pardon this short note I do want to catch this mail so as you will have a reply from your most welcome letter & lovely snaps snaps by the way are the first we have had. Brian did not send any as far as we know. but we have got the post card size one of himself, in uniform needless to say which we are very proud, it was in his last letter he sent home! we just can't calm ourselves as we haven't had the final word from the admiralty, although his friends have told us the worst. Your kind & comforting words mean so much to us & I feel like you how very much we should like to meet We just must do so, you are young & could come here after this wicked war.

My daughter & Brian after talked that way, as they have got cousins in Southern states my be B had mentioned this to you.

Do you know Mrs Harper they have be kind like you to write us. Good Hope her son was killed. I App. Portwood R.

just cant bear to think of such kind plead to have such trouble. Have ye heard from your brother Donald bless him you will have news of him. The war is going are way now. again many thanks & for all you have done for Brian. I will write you but bless kindest thoughts to a very
